

—Go to Pinner's sale and buy a dairy cow.

—See the Cut Glass at Phillips' Drug Store.

—Mrs. Harry Dunham was a St. Joseph visitor, Monday.

—Don't fail to read the Variety Store's ad this week.

—D. Ward King, of Maitland, is on a touring tour in Minnesota.

—T. C. Dunham was transacting business in St. Joseph, Monday.

—Go to Pinner's sale and see the building materials and lot $10,000.

—E. A. Post was in Kansas City a few days last week on business.

—St. Joe Wood of St. Joe.

RAY BURNER.

—All kinds of Sticks for the holiday season can be had at the West Side Cafe.

—Do not fail to see the nice display of holiday goods at Phillips' Drug Store.

—Ed. Gibson is still in feeble health, and does not seem to rally in gaining strength.

—Will Markt has been quite sick the past several days, and has been confined to his home.

—Daniel Zachman was up town, Monday, having been sick and confined to his home the past week.

—Mrs. Lizzie M. Recker was in St. Joseph, several days, this week, the guest of relatives and friends.

—Tollet Cases, Work Boxes, Mand cure Sets, Postcard Albums, Medallions, Etc., at Phillips' Drug Store.

—Charles Brummeier, of near Forest City, was in town Thursday, and seemed as busy as an English sparrow.

—Edison Evans, of the Chicago University, is home to spend the holiday season with his parents, Dr. C. L. Evans and wife.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Post, of Kansas City, have been here the past week visiting their sons, Ernest, and W. H. Post and family.

—Mrs. H. E. Kunkel was visiting for a few days the past week in St. Joseph, the sister of her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Kunkel.

—Mrs. L. E. Edwards is looking for the coming of her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Edwards, daughter, and her husband for the holiday season.

—The "Phonograph" section of the light house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wood on Tuesday of this week, December 10th.

—This company will hold its first meeting the next two weeks of this month. The new year will observe the first Monday in January, 1915.

—Dr. H. E. Kunkel was in Kansas City, last week, attending a convention of the telephone men. He reports a good meeting and a large attendance.

—Dr. C. J. Chase will deliver a lecture at the Forbes M. E. church, Tuesday evening, December 22nd. Everybody invited. Admission 15 cents.

—Mrs. R. G. Hickey and son, Glen, were St. Joseph visitors, last week, and Glen came near buying out the hotel store, he saw so many things he wanted.

—Mrs. Fannie Wilson and daughter, Miss Lida, of Forbes, have returned home after an extended visit with their son and brother, Ed, in Oklahoma.

—C. J. Kneek and Lee Greene had business in Barnard, this state, Friday of last week. They autoed over and back, Kenneth Tald doing the driving for them.

—Howard Pearce, of Craig, will likely be laid up all winter. While gathering corn for the Perkins Brothers, he fell from his wagon on the 21st inst. and broke his right leg between the knee and ankle.

—Gideon Kunkel and wife, of Anadarko, Oklahoma, are here for the holiday season, visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. C. Proud, son, Albert, and legion of relatives and friends. We are glad to learn of their good health. Gid is now 79 and doesn't seem to be aging in the least.

—The people of the Union district, will have a Christmas tree, and an interesting program on Christmas Eve, December 24th.

—A. Vinquist and wife are delighted over the coming of a baby boy to their home, on December 11th. Dr. Vinquist says he's a fine physical specimen, too.

—Mrs. Rebecca Castle left last week for Fort Arthur, Texas, to make an extended visit with her sons, Charles, Ned and Audrey. Her son, Frank, accompanied her as far as Kansas City.

—Mrs. Emmett Cook was taken to the Ensworth hospital in St. Joseph Sunday evening, December 6, and Tuesday morning underwent an operation for appendicitis. We are informed that she rallied favorably from the anesthetic and shock of the operation, with small fear of a relapse in her condition. —Craig Leader, December 11.

—Mrs. Charles Kneek has returned from Kansas City, where she visited for a few days with her sister, and gazed into the great Santa Claus show windows.

—Why not send a penny postal card to Box 874, Kansas City, Mo., and see what you get? "Flying Sparks" is a whole bunch of electric sparklets, a real Fourth-of-July celebration in tabloid form.

—Mrs. F. L. Zeller, of this city, was the guest of Mound City friends this week, and attended the wedding, Wednesday evening, of this week, of Mr. Jesse Wehril and Miss Bertha Anderson, prominent young people of Northern Holt.

—George Penny and Will Richardson, are enjoying the balmy air of the Southland, and we hope they will take in Corpus Christi, and visit the junior of THE SENTINEL and his wife, and while the former may furnish the ducks the latter, if physically able, will furnish the bass. We wish them an enjoyable trip.

—The Country Club held its annual meeting this year at the home of Mrs. Theresa Stephenson, in this city, on Saturday last, December 12, and prepared their annual Christmas donation for the St. Louis orphans. This is the main purpose of the organization, in addition to its social features, and you will travel long and far before you find a finer bunch of women.

—Hon. Frank R. Klepper, ex-Congressman from Missouri, writes: "I have read your book, 'Flying Sparks,' with keen pleasure. The book deals with many subjects of interest and the reader never tires, as there is not a single dull chapter. The death sentence of 'Cherokee Bill' by Judge I. C. Parker, is alone worth the price of the book." Address, Box 874, Kansas City, Mo.

—There are 2,700 students in the University of Missouri, of whom 25 are named Smith. It is pleasant to learn that this great family believes in higher education.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Stone, of Fortescue, are especially happy just now, owing to a visit from the stork which left a sweet baby boy at their home on the 7th inst.

—Harvey Dozier and wife, of the Benton district, are now located on the land lately occupied by Frank Casteel. Harvey has been farming the D. W. Swope land.

—M. P. Clark, a former resident of this county, in the mercantile business at Morris, Oklahoma, sustained a heavy loss recently by having his store burglarized and then set on fire, destroying the greater portion of his stock of goods.

—Fred Burrier brought in a fine gray wolf that he killed on his father's place, Tuesday, of this week, that weighed 37 pounds. It was such a fine specimen that Robert Montgomery purchased it and will have the pelt tanned and mounted.

—Dr. Leonard Hotkin, of New Point, is convalescing nicely, and is strong enough to talk to friends over the phone. His physician, Dr. Fendley, nurse, mother and others had a long, wearisome fight, but are now elated over the victory won.

—Austin Wright died in Tarkio, Sunday evening, December 8th. His remains were brought to Craig, Tuesday morning and buried in the Parish cemetery. Mr. Wright was born in the vicinity of Craig and lived near that city the major part of his life. He leaves five grown sons to mourn his departure.

—There was a good crowd at the W. J. Glass sale Tuesday, of this week, and exceptionally good prices prevailed, the sale being cried by Col. P. M. Babb. Horses sold as high as $172.50 per head, the cheapest, a 2-year-old, brought an even $100. Milch cows went to $79 and spring and summer calves sold at $20 and $25. Outside of the junk line, everything brought good fair prices.

—We are truly sorry to learn of the alarming illness of Judge Daniel Van Wormer, of Craig, whose condition is such as to cause much anxiety among relatives and friends. He is now in his 55th year, and his advanced age is somewhat against him. We hope, however, for a recovery. He is one of the grand old men of Union township. His son, William, of Springfield, Mo., was called to his bedside, last week.

—We have had good sleighing since the snow fall of Saturday night. It is delightful to hear the jingle of the sleigh bells, and the young people are surely enjoying it.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dearmont and T. W. Burke, of Mound City, who were more or less injured in an auto accident near Napier on December 1, are rapidly recovering.

—Bird Foster, now in the real-estate business in St. Joseph, was in town Thursday of last week, shaking hands with his many former school chums, and relatives.

—A letter received by friends from Mrs. Belle Hutton at Athens, Texas, states that she and husband arrived safely at their home, and are now nicely and happily situated.

—Mrs. G. H. Price is back home from St. Joseph, where she was called to the bedside of her little granddaughter, Mary Caskey, who was a very sick child from tonsillitis.

—Dolls, Doll Buggies, Doll Trunks, Doll Beds, Toy Tea Sets, Toy Sewing Machines, Toy Brooms, Tool Chests, Stoves, Automobiles, Mechanical Toys, Games and Toys of all kinds, at Phillips' Drug Store.

—Mrs. Sherman Hibbard was here for a day or two the past week, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Zook, having had a delightful tour to New York and return. She and husband are now nicely located at the St. Regis hotel, Kansas City, and will be at home after January 1 to friends.

Commencing Saturday, December 12th, I will sell my Household Goods, consisting of Bed Steads, Chairs, Bureaus, Stand Tables, Wash Stands, Safes, two large Plate Glasses, Extension Table, Cupboard Ware, Carpets, Etc., and will continue sale every day until sold. Photo Business will be continued till property is sold. Call at once. Two View Cameras, Lenses, Plate Holders. Everything is new. P. M. ZOOK.

ECONOMY SALE!

A Grocery Sale that will convince you that

"WE SELL CHEAPER."

Goods Delivered Anywhere in the City.

Sale closes Saturday, December 19th, 1914

Canned Vegetables

Our lines of Canned Vegetables are the best procurable. You can't go wrong by laying in your winter supply at these prices.

No. 3 cans of finest Golden Pumpkin. Nothing finer. Sale price, 7c

No. 2 cans extra standard Minnesota corn. Quality fine. Sale price, 7c

No. 3 cans of extra quality Indiana Tomatoes. Cans full of vine ripened fruit. Sale price, 9c

No. 3 cans real lye hominy, tender and sweet. Quality is top notch. Sale price, 7c

No. 2 cans sweet tender Telephone peas. Not a hard dry pea in can. Sale price per can, 9c

Baked Beans

Snyder's New Process Pork & Beans. —than which there is nothing better.

No. 3 cans, 26 size. Sale price, can, 19c

No. 2 cans, 16 size. Sale price, can, 12c

No. 1 cans, 10 size. Sale price, can, 8c

Canned Fish

Every quality we offer is of Fancy Quality.

Fancy Columbia River Sock Eye Salmon. Sale price, can, 22c

Fancy Red Alaska Salmon. Sale price, can, 18c

Good Alaska Red Salmon. Sale price, can, 15c

Fancy Pink Columbia River Salmon. Sale price, can, 11c

Fancy Imported Kipperal Herring. Sale price, can, 9c

Fancy Imported Sardines. Sale price, can, 9c

Breakfast Foods

Washington Crisps, the box 10c. Sale price, 4 packages, 25c

Golden Breakfast Wheat. Our own good brand. 2 pkgs. 25c

Meats - Lards

This will help cut the cost of living. Nice quality of dry salt Bacon. Sale price, pound, 15c

25c grade of Winchester Breakfast Bacon. Sale price, lb., 20c

Dixie Bacon—our big seller. Sale price, pound, 18c

Best Lard, pound, 12c

Xmas Candies

Our Candy Department is full to overflowing. Our varieties and qualities are top notch.

Two tons of Candy the grocer will ask you 20c a pound for, sold here at, pound 12c

Fruits - Vegetables

This line is always fresh and offered at saving prices.

150 size, 50c Oranges, big and juicy, per dozen 35c

54 size Grape Fruit, a fine big juicy one, 4 for 25c

Solid Colorado Holland Cabbage. Sale price, pound, 2c

Nice, ripe Bananas, sale price, dozen, 20c

Prices to Think About

5 lbs. New Navy Beans, 25c

3 lbs. New Butter Beans, 25c

3 lbs. Fancy Head Rice, big full berries for, 23c

3 lbs. Best Crackers for, 25c

6 boxes Argo Starch for, 25c

Coffee! Coffee!!

Here's our speciality. We have a reputation for high grade coffee at a low grade price.

Most people in this vicinity know of our Peaberry coffee—a regular 30c quality. We offer 300 pounds in this sale. Sale price, pound, 20c

Our big selling Rio Coffee that was sold last year at 25c lb. Sale price, lb., 12c

We grind if you tell us. Coffee is advancing—only coffee on hand offered at this price.

Keep In Mind

Our Overshoes are the best money can buy; but we sell the Best Red Fibre, double sole shoe for $2.00; a good heavy shoe for $1.25. Ladies heavy or Jersey Overshoe, 95c.

Our line of Ladies' Winter Coats is new and up-to-date, with new arrivals just in.

Soaps! Soaps!

For Washing Soap we have Pearl White, Ben Hur and Electric Spark. Every one is standard and well known. Sale price, 8 bars, 27c

18 pounds of Sugar for $1.00 with all grocery orders.

Best Cream Cheese, per pound, 20c

Also kindly remember to get your tickets, as each $5.00 worth gets you a nice dish.

KREEK & HASNESS,

OREGON, MO.

Ever-ready entertainment

The unexpected guest is royally entertained with the music of the

Victrola

The world's best music always at your instant command—a pleasure to your friends as well as to your family.

Come in and let us introduce you to the joys of this wonderful instrument.

Victrolas $15 to $200. Victrolas $10 to $100.

Terms to suit your convenience.

Carey E. Bunker
Jeweler and Optician
Oregon, Missouri.

Try the Velveta Toilet Goods on sale now at E. A. NETHERLAND'S.

—You can get the very freshest C. West Fruits, and Nuts at the West Side Cafe. Just what you will need for the old and young, for the holiday season.

—Mrs. Charles Kneek has returned from Kansas City, where she visited for a few days with her sister, and gazed into the great Santa Claus show windows.

—Why not send a penny postal card to Box 874, Kansas City, Mo., and see what you get? "Flying Sparks" is a whole bunch of electric sparklets, a real Fourth-of-July celebration in tabloid form.

—Mrs. F. L. Zeller, of this city, was the guest of Mound City friends this week, and attended the wedding, Wednesday evening, of this week, of Mr. Jesse Wehril and Miss Bertha Anderson, prominent young people of Northern Holt.

—George Penny and Will Richardson, are enjoying the balmy air of the Southland, and we hope they will take in Corpus Christi, and visit the junior of THE SENTINEL and his wife, and while the former may furnish the ducks the latter, if physically able, will furnish the bass. We wish them an enjoyable trip.

—C. A. Gel-in and Miss Mary, of the Benton district, who have been quite sick, are now convalescing.

—You can find most anything you want suitable for a present, and prices right, at Phillips' Drug Store.

—Fred Markt has been confined to his home for the past ten days, nursing a case of the grippe; he is better now, and will get along if nothing happens to give him a back set.

—J. H. Wilson, Jr., of Wilson Bros., was in Kansas City, Saturday last, and purchased an Oxy-Acetelene welding plant, to be used in their shop. This is the first machine of this kind in the county.

—Mrs. Emmett Cook was taken to the Ensworth hospital in St. Joseph Sunday evening, December 6, and Tuesday morning underwent an operation for appendicitis. We are informed that she rallied favorably from the anesthetic and shock of the operation, with small fear of a relapse in her condition. —Craig Leader, December 11.

—Riley Hulatt, John Elier, Roger Turner, Fred Cook, Howard Teare, Dr. B. G. Pierce, Mercer Hinde, Chas. Patterson, and several others went to St. Joseph, Tuesday, to witness the boxing contest between Carroll and Morris.

—The Country Club held its annual meeting this year at the home of Mrs. Theresa Stephenson, in this city, on Saturday last, December 12, and prepared their annual Christmas donation for the St. Louis orphans. This is the main purpose of the organization, in addition to its social features, and you will travel long and far before you find a finer bunch of women.

—Hon. Frank R. Klepper, ex-Congressman from Missouri, writes: "I have read your book, 'Flying Sparks,' with keen pleasure. The book deals with many subjects of interest and the reader never tires, as there is not a single dull chapter. The death sentence of 'Cherokee Bill' by Judge I. C. Parker, is alone worth the price of the book." Address, Box 874, Kansas City, Mo.

—There are 2,700 students in the University of Missouri, of whom 25 are named Smith. It is pleasant to learn that this great family believes in higher education.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Stone, of Fortescue, are especially happy just now, owing to a visit from the stork which left a sweet baby boy at their home on the 7th inst.

—Harvey Dozier and wife, of the Benton district, are now located on the land lately occupied by Frank Casteel. Harvey has been farming the D. W. Swope land.

—M. P. Clark, a former resident of this county, in the mercantile business at Morris, Oklahoma, sustained a heavy loss recently by having his store burglarized and then set on fire, destroying the greater portion of his stock of goods.

—Fred Burrier brought in a fine gray wolf that he killed on his father's place, Tuesday, of this week, that weighed 37 pounds. It was such a fine specimen that Robert Montgomery purchased it and will have the pelt tanned and mounted.

—Dr. Leonard Hotkin, of New Point, is convalescing nicely, and is strong enough to talk to friends over the phone. His physician, Dr. Fendley, nurse, mother and others had a long, wearisome fight, but are now elated over the victory won.

—Austin Wright died in Tarkio, Sunday evening, December 8th. His remains were brought to Craig, Tuesday morning and buried in the Parish cemetery. Mr. Wright was born in the vicinity of Craig and lived near that city the major part of his life. He leaves five grown sons to mourn his departure.

—There was a good crowd at the W. J. Glass sale Tuesday, of this week, and exceptionally good prices prevailed, the sale being cried by Col. P. M. Babb. Horses sold as high as $172.50 per head, the cheapest, a 2-year-old, brought an even $100. Milch cows went to $79 and spring and summer calves sold at $20 and $25. Outside of the junk line, everything brought good fair prices.

—We are truly sorry to learn of the alarming illness of Judge Daniel Van Wormer, of Craig, whose condition is such as to cause much anxiety among relatives and friends. He is now in his 55th year, and his advanced age is somewhat against him. We hope, however, for a recovery. He is one of the grand old men of Union township. His son, William, of Springfield, Mo., was called to his bedside, last week.

USE DRY DIP and keep your stock free from Lice and Germs—especially manufactured for cold weather, when you need it the most, and sold under guarantee to give satisfaction, or no pay. FRANK FOSTER.

—We have had good sleighing since the snow fall of Saturday night. It is delightful to hear the jingle of the sleigh bells, and the young people are surely enjoying it.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dearmont and T. W. Burke, of Mound City, who were more or less injured in an auto accident near Napier on December 1, are rapidly recovering.

—Bird Foster, now in the real-estate business in St. Joseph, was in town Thursday of last week, shaking hands with his many former school chums, and relatives.

—A letter received by friends from Mrs. Belle Hutton at Athens, Texas, states that she and husband arrived safely at their home, and are now nicely and happily situated.

—Mrs. G. H. Price is back home from St. Joseph, where she was called to the bedside of her little granddaughter, Mary Caskey, who was a very sick child from tonsillitis.

—Dolls, Doll Buggies, Doll Trunks, Doll Beds, Toy Tea Sets, Toy Sewing Machines, Toy Brooms, Tool Chests, Stoves, Automobiles, Mechanical Toys, Games and Toys of all kinds, at Phillips' Drug Store.

—Mrs. Sherman Hibbard was here for a day or two the past week, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Zook, having had a delightful tour to New York and return. She and husband are now nicely located at the St. Regis hotel, Kansas City, and will be at home after January 1 to friends.

Commencing Saturday, December 12th, I will sell my Household Goods, consisting of Bed Steads, Chairs, Bureaus, Stand Tables, Wash Stands, Safes, two large Plate Glasses, Extension Table, Cupboard Ware, Carpets, Etc., and will continue sale every day until sold. Photo Business will be continued till property is sold. Call at once. Two View Cameras, Lenses, Plate Holders. Everything is new. P. M. ZOOK.

Don't Forget That

Pianos and Player Pianos and Victrolas

make Excellent Christmas Presents and you can buy THE BEST AT

Carey E. Bunker's

Optician and Jeweler

Oregon, Missouri.